Submission Tips

- You can submit as many times as you'd like - we only use the last submission.
- We recommend practicing submitting so you don't run into issues near the submission deadline.
- Plan out how you are going to record your pitch
  - Zoom
  - Prezi
  - Quicktime (on Mac)

Submission Confirmation

You will receive a notification as well as an email once you've submitted.

The screenshot shows a web interface for a team named "Team 01: Tech Knuckle Support". At the top, there is a teal header with a team icon (three people) and a "View team" link. Below the header, on the left, is a "Team Settings" sidebar with options: General, Team Picture, Invitations, Add members, Submission (highlighted), and Admin. The main content area has a green success message: "Success! Your submission has been accepted." Below this is a "Submission" section with a text input field labeled "Submission Name" containing the text "Inventorprise".

The screenshot shows an email from "Hackworks" to "me". The subject is "Demo Event Submission Confirmation for Team 01: Tech Knuckle Support". The email body says: "Hey Courtney, We have received your 'Demo Event' submission for team Team 01: Tech Knuckle Support. - The Hackworks Team". At the bottom, there are "Reply" and "Forward" buttons. The email was sent on "Wed, Aug 5, 1:33 PM (22 hours ago)".
