

SOLVE FOR X IDEAHACK

JUDGING CRITERIA

Weighting	Criteria	Description	Score
			0 - 3	4 - 7	8 - 10
40%	Impact and Alignment with Challenges	How will this solution impact the lives within the identified challenges? -- Did the presenters clearly identify the problem they are attempting to solve? Is the solution relevant to the identified challenge?	Solution does not align with the challenge. -- The problem isn't clearly articulated and the solution is not relevant.	Solution is well-aligned with challenges but will only have moderate impact. -- The solution has some impact but it is unclear how it will really improve lives.	Exception alignment with challenge where solution exceeds needs and will have significant impact -- The solution identifies a real gap and will have a significant, relevant and meaningful impact to improve lives.
30%	Innovation OR Ingenuity	How unique is the concept of the solution? -- The degree to which the submission is clever, inventive, and/or skilful in concept and design.	Concept of solution is not unique. -- Interesting idea but not fundamentally clever or creative.	The solution proposes a new approach to an existing solution. -- Clever, inventive and skilful but not game-changing	The solution is a unique idea that has value. -- Clever, inventive and skilful submission that generates enthusiasm and support.
20%	Feasibility and Path to Implementation	How easily can the solution be implemented?	The solution is not realistic or implementable.	The solution can be implemented to varying degrees, may face obstacles.	The solution can easily be implemented.
10%	Pitch & Presentation	How well did the presenters provide a convincing argument for their solution? -- Was the presentation organized and engaging? Did the presenters properly identify the problem they are attempting to solve and clearly articulate the way their solution addresses the problem.	The problem isn't clearly articulated, and the solution is confusing. -- The solution isn't clearly articulated and the presentation is disorganized	Presentation lacks style, clarity and conviction.	Presentation is dynamic, clear, concise and convincing.